

ROCKPORT BEACH QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Is there a fee to enter Rockport Beach Park?

There is a daily $4 or $10 annual vehicle parking fee. There is no charge to enter by foot, bicycle, or if you are towing a boat or boat trailer to go to the public boat ramp.

Are dogs permitted in the park?

No, we're sorry, but dogs are not permitted inside the park since it is a bird sanctuary. However, dogs are permitted on a leash at a small beach area just outside the entrance to the beach park.

Is overnight camping permitted inside the park?

No, overnight camping is not permitted in the Rockport Beach Park.

Is there a location for picnicking?

Yes, there are 61 individual picnic sites spread throughout the park. Each site has a covered picnic table with barbeque grill.

Is there a playground for children?

Yes, there are 3 playgrounds sites along the beachfront.

Is fishing permitted inside the park?

Yes, fishing is permitted just about anywhere, including a popular 800 foot pier at the North end of the beach. Two off-limit fishing sites are the boat dock and the Saltwater Pool.

Is sailing permitted?

Yes and NO! Wind powered watercraft are not permitted in Little Bay, which often is congested with water skiers and jet ski's during the summer months. However, sail boats, sail boarding, and other wind powered activities are permitted on Aransas Bay (beach-side of park).
